

PRE-WRITTEN EXAM BOOTCAMP

September 20, 2015 (Sunday)

9:00 – 3:30

FLORIDA INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY

MIAMI, FL

Pre-Written Exam Workshop

Enroll in this practical workshop to get a “LEG UP” on the upcoming State Interpreter WRITTEN Exam. This will be an intense ENGLISH ONLY workshop developed to enhance your test-taking skills and give you that extra dose of self-confidence through targeted practice in the three central testing areas: 1) English Language 2) Court-Related Terms and Usage 3) Ethics and Professional Conduct.

This workshop is 75% hands-on practice and 25% lecture. The instructor employs the communicative teaching method, acting as a coach who challenges and guides the participants through a series of “mini-exam” exercises. The goal of this workshop is to familiarize attendees with the test format to minimize test day jitters while improving their ENGLISH WRITTEN SKILLS.

All workshop exercises are based on standardized English usage and designed to expand your test-taking skills through targeted practice.

This workshop is designed for those individuals who are preparing to take the up-coming State of Florida Interpreter WRITTEN EXAM.

This intensive six-hour program includes:

- 1) English Language—grammar, vocabulary, idioms
- 2) Judicial System—court-related terms and usage
- 3) Ethics and Professional Conduct—Interpreter Code of Ethics

Meet Your Presenter

Karen Borgenheimer, MFA, is a Miami-based certified interpreter / translator. She has been a university professor for 25 years and a professor of Translation and Interpretation at Florida International University (FIU) for the past 13 years.

Karen completed doctoral course work in Spanish at the University of Wisconsin-Madison. She holds a Masters of Fine Arts in Translation from the University of Arkansas-Fayetteville and a BA in Spanish from the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire.

Ms. Borgenheimer has had extensive interpreter training with the University of Arizona’s Agnese Haury Institute for Interpretation and the Sampere Escuela de Traductores e Intérpretes in Madrid, Spain, where she lived and worked for nearly a decade. She later obtained a professional certificate in Legal Translation and Court Interpreting at FIU.

In addition to years of experience interpreting in the judicial system, Karen has been the official interpreter for Spanish dignitaries, Latin American presidents, the U.S. Department of Defense, Homeland Security, Southern Command, the Miss Universe Pageant and numerous conferences.
